

The Bishop Coadjutor Stipend Ordinance of 1925.

AN ORDINANCE to make further provision for a Bishop Coadjutor for the See of Sydney and for other purposes incidental thereto.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal Section 6 of the Ordinance to provide for the Appointment of a Bishop Coadjutor for the See of Sydney (1924) and to make other provision in lieu thereof: AND WHEREAS by Crown Grant under the hand of Sir George Gipps Governor of New South Wales dated the thirteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-two certain land hereinafter called St. Philip's Glebe was granted upon trust for the appropriation thereof as the Glebe annexed to the Church of the United Church of England and Ireland as by law established erected at Sydney and known as St. Philip's. AND WHEREAS the St. Philip's Glebe was transferred to and vested in The Church of England Property Trust Diocese of Sydney (hereinafter called the Corporate Trustees). AND WHEREAS by the St. Philip's Glebe Land Vesting Management Ordinance 1920 certain portion of St. Philip's Glebe was vested in a Board of Trustees constituted thereunder but the remainder thereof remained and is still vested in the Corporate Trustees subject however to a certain Lease which expires on the thirty-first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one. AND WHEREAS it is expedient by reason of circumstances subsequent to the creation of the Trust of St. Philip's Glebe that the said remainder thereof now vested in the Corporate Trustees should be charged with and be subject to the payment of the stipend of the said Bishop Coadjutor and for that purpose should be mortgaged as hereinafter provided. NOW THE SYNOD OF THE DIOCESE OF SYDNEY in pursuance of the powers in that behalf conferred upon it by the Constitutions for the Management and good Government of the Church of England within the State of New South Wales and by the Church of England Trust Property Act 1917 and of all other powers thereunto enabling it ORDAINS DIRECTS AND DECLARES as follows:--

1. By reason of circumstances which have occurred since the creation of the said recited Trust it has become inexpedient to carry out or observe such Trust so far as the same conflicts with the provisions of this Ordinance and it has become expedient that the Corporate Trustees should be empowered to mortgage in manner hereinafter mentioned so much of the said remainder of St. Philip's Glebe now vested in them as in their opinion will be required to secure the repayment of sufficient moneys to pay the stipend hereinafter mentioned and interest thereon.

2. The said remainder or such portion thereof as aforesaid of St. Philip's Glebe now vested in the Corporate Trustees may from time to time be mortgaged to raise and secure the repayment of sufficient moneys to pay the stipend hereinafter mentioned down to the thirty-first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one together with interest on such moneys and all costs charges and expenses of and incidental to raising such moneys and this Ordinance.

3. The moneys so borrowed as aforesaid shall be applied by the Corporate Trustees in paying to the Bishop Coadjutor a stipend which together with such stipend if any as he shall receive as Rector of a Parish in or Administrator of the Diocese shall be at such rate as shall be determined from time to time by the Standing Committee with the approval of the Archbishop being not less however than One thousand pounds per annum.

4. The net rents issues and profits arising from the remainder of the said Glebe Lands now vested in the Corporate Trustees after paying and satisfying all endowments payable thereof shall on and after the thirty-first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one be applied as follows:—

(a) In paying the stipend of the Bishop Coadjutor hereinbefore provided for.

(b) In paying off the principal interest and other moneys owing under the said mortgages.

And the balance of the same shall be applied from time to time as Synod shall by Ordinance direct.

5. The Bishop Coadjutor shall not be entitled to the said stipend after his appointment has determined provided however that with the approval of the Standing Committee such stipend shall be paid to him if his appointment determines with the voidance of the See during such time if any as he shall be the Administrator
