Part 4 Resolutions

4.1 Introduction

The main way in which the Synod expresses a view on a matter is by the making of a resolution. Generally, a resolution is made in the following way.

- (a) A member of the Synod (referred to in these rules as the “mover”) moves a motion (referred to in these rules as the “principal motion”). Usually, the mover will have given notice of the principal motion on a previous day.
- (b) Except during a meeting of the Synod in Committee, a motion is to be seconded.
- (c) When called by the President, the mover will speak in support of the principal motion and the seconder may also speak in support of the motion.
- (d) If any member wishes to speak against the principal motion, or move a proposed amendment, debate will proceed.
- (e) If no member wishes to speak against the principal motion or move an amendment, the President is to ask the Synod to vote on the principal motion.
- (f) After debate has concluded, the President is to ask the Synod to vote on any amendments. After any amendments have been agreed to or rejected, the President is to ask the Synod to vote on the principal motion, as amended by any amendments which have been agreed.
- (g) If the principal motion, with or without amendments, is passed, it becomes a resolution of the Synod.

The remaining rules in this Part contain the details of this procedure, and the details of the special situations in which the general procedure is modified.

4.2 General rules

- (1) A member may only address the Synod when called by the President to do so.
- (2) The President may take part in debate.

(3) If the President stands, all other members are to sit and remain seated until the President sits down.

(4) Any member may speak to a question about procedure. A question about procedure is to be decided by the President whose decision is final unless immediately altered as a result of a motion without notice passed by the Synod.

(5) The President is to confine each speaker to the subject matter being debated. A member may not interrupt a speaker, except with the permission of the President, or as a result of a motion without notice passed by the Synod.

(6) A speaker may not make a remark which reflects adversely on the personality of any member or imputes an improper or questionable motive to any member. If a speaker makes such a remark, the President is to

- (a) ask the speaker to withdraw the remarks and apologise and,
- (b) warn the speaker against making such remarks in future.

If, having been asked, the speaker refuses to withdraw the remark and apologise, the member may be suspended from the Synod as a result of a motion with or without notice passed by the Synod, for the time specified in the motion.

(7) A member may not act in a disorderly way. If a member acts in a disorderly way, he or she may be suspended from the Synod as a result of a motion with or without notice passed by the Synod, for the time specified in the motion.

4.3 Notice of motions required

(1) The Synod is not to consider a motion unless

- (a) notice of the motion was given on a previous day, or
- (b) the Synod agrees to consider the motion.

(2) Motions intended to facilitate the consideration of business at the time are known as "procedural motions" and can rarely be notified in advance. Rule 4.3(1) does not apply to procedural motions and those other motions for which notice is not required by Parts 4 and 5.

(3) A member may send notice of a motion to the Standing Committee to be received at least 1 month before the first day of the session. Notice of such motion is to be printed on the business paper for the first day of the session. A member may not send notice of more than 2 motions.

(4) If notice in writing is given to a Secretary of the Synod by 7.00 pm on the first day of a session then notice of the motion will be regarded as having been given on a previous day for the purposes of rule 4.3(1).

4.4 Motions to be seconded

(1) No motion, or motion to amend a motion, is to be considered unless it is seconded.

(2) Rule 4.4(1) does not apply to a motion moved in a meeting of the Synod in Committee.

4.5 Calling the motions on the business paper

(1) At the time required by rule 3.2, 3.3 or 3.4, the President is to call the motions in the order in which they appear on the business paper, except those motions about a proposed ordinance.

(2) When a motion is called, the President is to ask for the motion to be seconded unless 8 or more members call "object" or 1 or more members calls "amendment". If the motion is seconded, the Synod is to vote on the motion without any speeches or debate.

(3) If 8 or more members call "object" or 1 or more members calls "amendment"

- (a) the President is to immediately call the next motion on the business paper to be called under this rule or, if there is no such motion, proceed to the next item of business, and
- (b) any member who calls "amendment" is to
 - deliver a written copy of the proposed amendment to a Secretary of the Synod, and
 - make himself or herself available to discuss the proposed amendment with the mover of the motion on the day on which the call is made.

(4) If the mover of a principal motion, after discussing a proposed amendment called under rule 4.5(3), notifies a Secretary of the Synod that the mover wants to move the motion in an amended form, the motion in the amended form becomes the principal motion, and is to be printed on the next day's business paper.

4.6 Time limits for speeches

(1) The following time limits for speeches apply.

- (a) For a motion that a proposed ordinance be approved in principle
 - the mover may speak for up to 20 minutes, and up to 10 minutes in reply
 - other members may speak for up to 10 minutes.
- (b) For other motions, except motions moved in the Synod in committee
 - the mover may speak for up to 10 minutes, and up to 5 minutes in reply

- other members may speak for up to 5 minutes.
- (c) For motions moved in a meeting of the Synod in Committee, a member may speak for up to 5 minutes.
- (2) A member, not being the speaker at the time, may move a procedural motion for the speaker to continue for a nominated number of minutes.

4.7 Number of speeches

- (1) No member may speak more than once on the same motion except
- (a) during a meeting of the Synod in Committee, or
 - (b) when invited to give an explanation, or
 - (c) when exercising a right of reply under rule 4.11.
- (2) A member who formally seconds a motion is not regarded as having spoken to the motion.

4.8 After a motion has been seconded

- (1) After a motion has been moved and seconded, the President is to ask a question to the effect
- “Does any member wish to speak against the motion or move an amendment?”
- (2) If no member indicates a wish to speak against the motion or move an amendment, the Synod is to vote on the motion without any debate.
- (3) If a member indicates a wish to speak against the motion or move an amendment, debate on the motion is to proceed.

4.9 Amendments to motions

- (1) A member may move a motion to amend a principal motion at any time before the close of debate. The motion to amend must be in writing and a copy handed to the President.
- (2) A member may move a motion to amend a motion to amend a principal motion. The motion to amend must be in writing and a copy handed to the President.
- (3) A member may ask the Synod to be allowed to withdraw their own motion to amend at any time before the close of debate.
- (4) If motions to amend have been moved, but not passed by the Synod, the motion to be put to the vote is the principal motion.
- (5) If motions to amend have been moved and passed by the Synod, the motion to be put to the vote is the amended principal motion.
- (6) If a member has moved a motion to amend and another member moves a motion for a different amendment or indicates an intention to move a motion for a different amendment, the President may

- (a) put to the Synod questions about the principal motion and the proposed amendment to establish the mind of the Synod on the principle or principles of the motions, or
- (b) nominate a person or persons to
 - prepare a suitable form of words which expresses the mind of the Synod
 - report to the Synod,and adjourn the debate on the principal motion and the proposed amendments until the report has been received.

(7) If debate on a motion is adjourned under rule 4.9(6)(b), the Synod is to proceed to the next item of business.

(8) If the President considers that the strict application of rule 4.9 may cause confusion or prevent the Synod from expressing its mind, he may waive the application of this rule, or so much of it as he thinks fit.

4.10 Putting a motion to the vote

(1) When the President thinks that sufficient time has been allowed for debate on a motion, he is to ask the Synod a question to the effect

“Does the Synod consider that the motion has been sufficiently debated and should now be voted on?”

(2) If the majority of the members present answer “Yes”, the debate on the motion will be regarded as having ended, subject to the mover of the motion exercising a right of reply under rule 4.11. If the majority of members present answer “No” the President is to allow the debate to continue. Rule 4.10(1) and rule 4.10(2) apply until debate has ended.

4.11 Right of reply

(1) The mover of a motion has a right of reply after debate on a motion has ended unless the motion is

- (a) a motion for an amendment, or
- (b) a procedural motion under rule 4.14(1) that a motion not be voted on.

(2) After a right of reply has been exercised, the motion is to be voted on.

4.12 Voting on a motion

(1) A vote on a motion is taken by the President asking present members who are in favour of the motion to say “Yes” and then to ask those members who are against the motion to say “No”. Voting may also take place by a show of hands at the option of the President or if requested by a member. A motion is passed only if a majority of the persons present and voting vote in favour of the motion.

(2) If requested by 8 or more members, voting on a motion is to be conducted by ballot. If a ballot is requested, the Synod, upon motion without notice and without debate, is to determine when and how the ballot is to be conducted.

(3) The members of the Synod are to vote collectively unless 8 members request that the vote be taken by Houses.

(4) If a vote is required to be taken by Houses, each House is to vote separately, the House of Laity voting first. The motion is passed only if a majority of persons present and voting in each House vote in favour of the motion. If a majority of the persons present and voting in the House of Laity do not vote in favour of the motion, the House of Clergy is not required to vote.

4.13 Adjournment of debate

(1) A procedural motion for the adjournment of either the Synod or a debate may be moved without notice at any time between speeches.

(2) If debate on a motion is adjourned, that debate takes precedence over all other business, unless these rules provide otherwise, or the Synod decides otherwise as a result of a motion without notice passed by the Synod.

4.14 Not voting on a motion

(1) If it is desired to avoid or postpone a vote on a motion, a member may move without notice the procedural motion
“That the motion not be voted on.”

(2) When this procedural motion is moved, the President is to immediately ask the Synod a question to the effect
“Does the Synod wish the debate on the principal motion to continue before the procedural motion is put to the Synod?”

(3) The question asked by the President in rule 4.14(2) may be debated but the debate is to be limited to that question until it is disposed of by vote of the Synod.

(4) If the majority of members present and answering answer “Yes” to the question asked by the President in rule 4.14(2), debate on the principal motion is to continue and the mover of that motion has a right of reply before the procedural motion is voted on. If the procedural motion is not passed, the principal motion, and any amendments, are to be voted on immediately without further debate.

(5) If the majority of members present and answering answer “No” to the question asked by the President in rule 4.14(2), the President is to immediately put the procedural motion without debate and without any right of reply.

(6) The procedural motion in rule 4.14(1) is not to be moved in a meeting of the Synod in Committee.

4.15 Withdrawal of a motion

A motion may be withdrawn at any time by its mover with the permission of the Synod.

4.16 Motions previously voted on

(1) No motion which has been considered by the Synod and voted on is to be debated again during the same session of the Synod.

(2) No motion which is substantially the same as one which has been voted on during the same session is to be considered.

(3) Any question about whether a motion is substantially the same as one which has been voted on during the same session is to be decided by the President whose decision is final unless immediately altered as a result of a motion without notice agreed to by the Synod.

4.17 Synod in Committee

(1) The Synod may, as a result of a procedural motion with or without notice passed by the Synod, resolve itself into the Synod in Committee to consider any matter. A motion for the Synod to resolve itself into the Synod in Committee to consider the text of a proposed ordinance (see rule 5.6) is

“That Synod resolves itself into the Synod in Committee to consider [further] the text of the [name of proposed ordinance].”

(2) During a meeting of the Synod in Committee, the Chairman of Committees or the Deputy Chairman of Committees has the functions set out in rules 2.3 and 2.4.

(3) The Synod in Committee may, as a result of a motion with or without notice passed by the Committee, resolve to adjourn its meeting. A motion to adjourn a meeting of the Synod in Committee is

“That the Chairman of Committees leaves the chair and reports progress.”

(4) On a motion to adjourn a meeting of the Synod in Committee being passed, the Chairman of Committees is to report progress to the Synod.

(5) When the Synod in Committee has concluded consideration of the matter before it, the Chairman of Committees is to report to Synod. Where the matter being considered was the text of a proposed ordinance, the Chairman of Committees is to report in the manner referred to in rule 5.6(3).

(6) The rules of procedure in this Part 4, so far as applicable, apply to a meeting of the Synod in Committee.

(7) In a meeting of the Synod in Committee the same number of members constitutes a quorum as in the Synod itself. If a quorum is not present, the Chairman of Committees is to leave the chair and report progress.

Part 5 Making of Ordinances by the Synod

5.1 Introduction

The general procedure for the making of an ordinance by the Synod is summarised in the following diagram.

The remaining rules in this Part contain the detail of this procedure, and the details of the special situations where the general procedure is modified.

 - (b) to amend rule 5.2, notice will be regarded as having been given only if
 - (c) a copy of the proposed ordinance was sent to each member at least 3 months before the first day of the session at which the proposed ordinance is to be considered, or
 - (d) 75% of the members present and voting permit the proposed ordinance to be introduced without notice, other than the notice provided for in rule 5.2(2).

5.3 Introduction of the proposed ordinance

“That Synod permits the introduction of the [name of the proposed ordinance].”
- (2) If the motion to introduce the proposed ordinance is passed, the mover may immediately move a motion to the effect “That Synod agrees to pass the proposed ordinance formally.”
- (3) If the motion to pass the proposed ordinance formally is passed, the procedure in rule 5.4 applies.
- (4) If the mover does not move a motion to the effect that the Synod agrees to pass the proposed ordinance formally, the mover is to immediately move a motion to the effect
“That Synod agrees to consider [at a specified time] a motion that the [name of the proposed ordinance] be approved in principle.”

5.4 Passing the proposed ordinance formally

- (1) If the Synod agrees to pass a proposed ordinance formally, the mover may immediately make a speech for not longer than 3 minutes about the proposed ordinance.

 - (a) the Chairman of Committees has certified the text of the ordinance, and
 - (b) the Secretaries of Synod have certified that the ordinance has passed as an ordinance of the Synod.
- (9) If
 - (a) prior to the motion in rule 5.4(7) being voted on, 8 members stand in their place to object to the proposed ordinance being passed formally, or
 - (b) the motion in rule 5.4(7) is not passed,

the mover is to immediately move a motion to the effect

“That Synod agrees to consider [on a specified future day/on a specified future day and at a specified time] a motion that the [name of proposed ordinance] be approved in principle.”

5.5 Approving the proposed ordinance in principle

(1) At the time permitted by these rules, the mover of a proposed ordinance may move a motion to the effect

“That the [name of the proposed ordinance] be approved in principle.”

(2) After this motion has been moved and seconded, and the mover and seconder have spoken, the President is to ask the Synod a question to the effect

“Does any member have a question about the proposed ordinance?”

(3) If a member indicates that he or she has a question, the President is to allow the question to be asked and rules 5.5(4), 5.5(5) and 5.5(6) apply. If no member indicates that he or she has a question, the time for questions will be regarded as having ended.

(4) A question is to be answered by the mover or seconder unless the President allows another person to answer the question.

(5) When the President thinks that sufficient time has been allowed for questions, he is to ask the Synod a question to the effect

“Does the Synod consider that sufficient time has been allowed for questions?”

(6) If the majority of members present answer “Yes”, the time for questions will be regarded as having ended. If the majority of members present answer “No”, the President is to allow the time for questions to continue. Rules 5.5(5) and 5.5(6) apply until the time for questions has ended.

(7) After the time for questions has ended, the President is to immediately ask the Synod a question to the effect

“Does any member wish to speak against the motion, or to move an amendment to it?”

(8) If a member indicates that he or she wishes to speak against the motion, or to move an amendment, the President is to allow debate on the motion to proceed.

(9) Upon a proposed ordinance being approved in principle, the President is to immediately ask the Synod a question to the effect

“Does any member wish to move an amendment to the text of the proposed ordinance?”

(10) If a member indicates to the President that he or she wishes to move an amendment to the text of the proposed ordinance, rule 5.6 applies.
