Long Title

An Ordinance to provide for the vesting trust management and control of St. Philip's Glebe and St.James' Glebe and for other purposes incidental thereto.

The Synod of the Diocese of Sydney Ordains, Directs, Declares and Rules as follows -

The Board

1. There shall be a board (hereinafter called "the Board") to be known as the "Glebe Administration Board".

Object

2. The object of the Board is to act as trustee of church trust property vested in it or in respect of which it may be appointed trustee and to do so in a way which both -

- (a) preserves the real value of that property; and
- (b) provides a reasonable income therefrom.

Membership

3. (1) The members of the Board shall be the persons who are the members of the Sydney Diocesan Secretariat. A person who is elected or who ceases to be a member of Sydney Diocesan Secretariat shall ipso facto become or cease to be (as the case may be) a member of the Board.

(2) No omission to elect any member or members nor any informality or error in the method of such election nor any vacancy or vacancies in the office of a member shall affect the authority or powers of the Board and, subject to the provisions as to a quorum, such authority and powers may be exercised by the members for the time being holding office.

Proceedings

4. (1) At meetings of the Board five members shall form a quorum.

(2) Subject to the provisions hereof the Board may regulate its own proceedings and for that purpose shall have power to make rescind or alter regulations from time to time.

(3) If a document containing a statement that the signatories to it are in favour of a resolution in the terms set out or otherwise identified in the document has been signed by all the members, a resolution in those terms shall be taken to have been passed at a meeting of the Board held on the day on which and at the time at which the document was last signed by a member.

(4) For the purposes of subclause 4(3) -

(a) 2 or more separate documents containing statements in identical terms each of which is signed by 1 or more members shall together be taken to constitute 1 document containing a statement in those terms signed by those members on the respective days on which they signed the separate documents; and

(b) a facsimile message which is received by the secretary of the Board and is expressed to have been sent by a member shall be taken to be a document signed by that member at the time of the receipt of the facsimile message by the secretary of the Board.

Archbishop

5. (1) The Board shall cause every notice convening a meeting of the Board to be sent or given to the Archbishop at the same time that such notice is sent or given to members of the Board. Where an agenda is issued in connection with any such notice given to members of the Board, the Board shall cause a copy of that agenda to be sent or given to the Archbishop at the same time that the agenda is issued to members of the Board.

(2) The Board shall cause a copy of the minutes of every meeting of members of the Board to be sent to the Archbishop immediately after those minutes have been adopted by the Board provided that, if the minutes of any meeting of members of the Board are not adopted at the meeting of members of the Board next following that meeting, then, in addition, a copy of the minutes, in the form in which the same were presented to the members at that subsequent meeting, shall be sent to the Archbishop.

(3) The Archbishop shall be entitled to attend any meeting of members of the Board, to put before the members of the Board any question or proposal for their consideration, and to express his views on any question or proposal being considered by the members of the Board at that meeting but shall not be entitled to vote on any such question or proposal.

Common Seal

6. The common seal of the Board shall not be affixed to any instrument except in pursuance of a resolution passed at a meeting of the Board. Every instrument to which the common seal is so affixed shall be signed by two members of the Board.

Delegation

7. Subject to the provisions of any Act or Ordinance, the members of the Board shall have power to delegate any of their functions to any committee comprised of persons nominated by those members and to revoke any such delegation. Any such committee may include persons who are not members of the Board but at least one half of the members of the committee shall be members of the Board. No such committee shall have or be given authority to approve the affixing of the common seal of the Board.

Indemnity

8. Each member of the Board shall be indemnified out of the property vested in the Board and the income therefrom against all loss or liability to which he may be subject by reason only of his being or having been a member of the Board.

Reporting

9. (1) The Board shall comply with the Accounts, Audits and Annual Reports Ordinance 1995 as amended from time to time. The Board shall keep separate accounts in respect of each trust of which it is the trustee.

(2) The Board shall report from time to time to the Standing Committee as to its proceedings and table at each meeting of the Standing Committee a copy of the minutes of all meetings of the Board held since the last meeting of the Standing Committee.

- (3) The Board shall comply with all decisions of policy made by the Standing Committee from time to time.
- (4) The Board shall provide the Standing Committee with such information regarding the affairs of the Board as the Standing Committee may require from time to time.
- (5) Any member of the Standing Committee may ask a question or questions on any matter relating to the affairs of the Board after any report from the Sydney Diocesan Secretariat, the Board or the Sydney Anglican Church Investment Trust is received by the Standing Committee, whether relating to any matter raised in the report or not. If the person who has presented the report cannot answer the question or questions, the Secretary of the Standing Committee shall notify the Secretary of the Board of the question and the Board shall ensure that an answer to the question is supplied to the Secretary of the Standing Committee before the next ordinary meeting of the Standing Committee.

9A.

9B.

Board May Act as Trustee
