

14TH CONSTITUTION ORDINANCE 1988

No. 27, 1988

AN ORDINANCE to regulate the powers of the Archbishop of Sydney under the 14th Article of the 1902 Constitution.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the powers of the Archbishop of Sydney under the 14th Article of the 1902 Constitution be regulated NOW the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney HEREBY ORDAINS DIRECTS DECLARES AND RULES as follows.

1. The Archbishop shall summon to the forty second or any subsequent Synod under the 14th Article of the 1902 Constitution only clergymen who, in addition to being duly authorised or licensed to officiate by him,
  - (a) have previously been summoned to a Synod as clergy holding (or deemed to hold) a separate cure of souls in the Diocese, or
  - (b) are engaged in teaching or ministry within the Diocese on a full-time basis under the direction of the Archbishop or a committee or corporation whose members (or most of whose members) are elected or appointed by the Synod of this Diocese or the Standing Committee thereof.
2. The number of eligible clergymen that the Archbishop shall summon to the forty second or any subsequent Synod under the 14th Article of the 1902 Constitution shall not exceed one tenth of the number of clergymen licensed (or deemed by the Synod Representative and Membership Ordinance 1945 to be licensed) to separate cures of souls in the Diocese on the 1st day of January of the year in which the first session of that Synod is or was held.
3. The Archbishop shall notify the Standing Committee of each clergyman summoned by him pursuant to the 14th Article of the 1902 Constitution no later than the second ordinary meeting thereof next following the date on which the relevant clergyman is summoned.
4. This Ordinance may be cited as "14th Constitution Ordinance 1988".

I CERTIFY that the Ordinance as printed is in accordance with the Ordinance as reported.
