See business rule 6.3 concerning questions. (please use block letter
To ask a Question	During the time for asking questions, when you get the call make a brief statement informing the Synod of the subject matter of the question (rather than reading to the Synod the full text of the question).
	After you have made a brief statement the form will be collected from you.
Please print your question here.

See Robert Wicks, Martin Thearle or Steve Lucas if words fail you!

This form can be downloaded from www.sds.asn.au "For Synod & Standing Committee" → "Synod this Year" → "Forms"

Please Print

Guidelines for Questions -

Under business rule 6.3(3) a question is to relate to a matter connected with the business of –

- (a) the Synod, or
- (b) any committee, board or commission of the Synod, or established by or under an ordinance, or by resolution of the Synod or the Standing Committee.

Under business rule 6.3(4) and is intended to provide an opportunity of obtaining facts on public matters and public policy. No question is to -

- (a) contain an assertion, or
- (b) express an opinion, or
- (c) offer an argument, or
- (d) make any inference or imputation, or
- (e) be expressed in language which, in the opinion of the President, is disrespectful or offensive, or
- (f) seek a legal opinion.

Continued
Continued