
Standing Orders Amendment Ordinance, 1969

No. 33, 1969

AN ORDINANCE to amend Standing Order 44 in the rules known as Standing Orders for the conduct of all business coming before the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney.

WHEREAS rules for the conduct of business coming before the Synod are contained in the Schedule to the Standing Orders Amendment and Consolidation Ordinance, 1968 (Ordinance No. 33, 1968) AND WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision for the conduct of business coming before the Synod NOW the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney HEREBY ORDAINS DECLARES DIRECTS AND RULES as follows:—

1. Standing Order 44 contained in the Schedule to the said Ordinance is amended by the addition of the following new clauses (9) and (10):—

"(9) In any case where an amendment has been proposed and any member or members has or have indicated an intention to move a further amendment or amendments under any clause or clauses of this standing order, the President may if he think fit defer further debate as to the form of such amendment or amendments and of the main question and may thereupon put to the Synod a question or series of questions for consideration as to the principle or principles involved in such main question and such proposed amendment or amendments with a view to establishing the wishes of the Synod on such question or questions of principle and may if he think fit thereafter nominate a Select Committee to prepare a suitable form of words to give expression to such principle or principles and report to the Synod at a time fixed by him. The President may adjourn the debate of the main question and such amendment or amendments until such report has been received and the Synod shall in the meantime proceed to the next business.

(10) Where in the opinion of the President the strict application of this Standing Order would cause confusion or prevent the Synod from giving expression to its real wishes he may waive the application of this Standing Order or so much of it as he shall think fit."

2. This Ordinance may be cited as "Standing Orders Amendment Ordinance, 1969".
